

amy

Going for a scan and ABI

"I am really worried, mum says I need to go back for another scan. I thought that would be it now I've left hospital. I don't remember having a scan but I don't like the idea of going into the machine.

Mum says they will give me something to make me feel sleepy and my friend Maya says she will come with me too."

