

Epilepsy after ABI

“When Amy had her first fit in hospital I was really scared. I was talking to her when she just looked really blank and started to shake a lot. I screamed for help and didn’t know what to do. Then the nurse came and gave her some medicine in her mouth and she stopped fitting. The nurse explained what happened.”

